Dear Judges,

Back on February 6, 2018, ACIJ Griswold sent you an email notifying you to please take notice that if you are assigned to preside over cases in Arizona, California or Washington, OCIJ has updated its intranet site to provide access to the training materials that were provided to you at the full-day Franco-Gonzales v. Holder training regarding assessment of mental competence (see attached email). You can access the training materials at this link.

Two new materials have been posted to the above link with respect to the Franco-Gonzalez v. Holder training materials in the folder labeled “Franco-Gonzalez v. Holder – Immigration Judge Training Materials.” The new materials are updated versions of documents #8 and #10 in that folder. These updated documents have been created for EOIR by Dr. Melissa Piasecki, a psychologist, pursuant to the district court’s orders in this case. They are related to mental disorders as discussed in the Implementation Order. You may also contact your Assistant Chief Immigration Judge for further guidance or questions regarding these updated materials.

Thank you.
